

A British Puzzle

© British - All rights reserved

Across

- 1 If you are very nervous or frightened and your legs suddenly become weak and in danger of collapse, we say your legs have turned to _____. (5)
- 5 An older woman past her prime who nevertheless dresses in clothing more suitable for young people is referred to as _____ dressed as lamb. (6)
- 7 A job or assignment that everybody wants but which is very difficult to get is a _____ job. (4)
- 8 To eat someone out of _____ and home is to consume all of the

- available resources that a person has. (5)
- 10 Something which is a _____ of cake is extremely easy and can be achieved without any effort. (5)
- 11 When we are unable to say which event proceeded another event, or which came first, we say it's a chicken and egg _____. (9)
- 12 To say that you want to punish someone harshly and severely is to say that you want their _____ on a plate. (4)
- 13 A person who is hard to get to know or understand, or a situation that is difficult to deal with, is a _____ egg to crack. (5)

without unpleasant side-effects is to say that you can't make an _____ without breaking eggs. (8)

Down

- 2 A weak person with a weak personality who will never stand up for themselves is known as a wet _____. (7)
- 3 When young children or babies are a little fat, and the fat is expected to disappear as they get older, we call it _____ fat. (5)
- 4 To ham _____ up is to make it ridiculous by over-exaggeration, and is often applied to actors. (9)
- 6 To say that something important cannot be achieved

9 Out of the _____ pan into the fire means going from one bad situation to another equally bad one, or worse. (6)

10 A person described as a _____ is a wonderful person with many admirable qualities. (5)