

A British Puzzle

© British - All rights reserved

Across

- 1 A situation which has reached the point where the participants have erupted into angry confrontation or are showing strong emotions has _____ over. (6)
- 3 The work or activity that you do on a daily basis to earn your regular income is known as your bread and _____. (6)
- 4 The meat of the _____ is the main focus of the matter at hand, the purpose of a meeting, or the issue under discussion. (6)

- 6 If you serve food from a container using a spoon, you spoon it out. (5)
- 7 To say that butter would not melt in somebody's _____ is to say that they appear to be very well-behaved, and look as if they would never do anything wrong or untoward, when the opposite is true. (5)
- 8 Somebody who is in the company of a couple engaged in a romantic liaison and who wish to be alone is playing _____. (10)

Down

- 1 If you are angry about something or cannot forgive someone for something they have done to you, you are _____ about it. (6)
- 2 Something which has been repeated numerous times and has lost its relevance to the point where it has become tedious is an old _____. (8)
- 3 When it is so cold that it is painfully cold, we say that it is _____ cold. (6)
- 4 _____ something for all it's worth is to take the maximum advantage of a favourable situation for your own benefit for as long as possible. (7)
- 5 People who love and cannot get enough of sweet foods are said to have a sweet _____. (5)
- 6 Someone who is on the _____ is drinking alcohol, probably to excess. (5)