

A British Puzzle

© British - All rights reserved

Across

- 1 A tough _____ is a person who is very determined, brave, and confident, and who is not easily upset, or discouraged. (6)
- 4 The cream of the _____ is the best and most sought-after part of something. (4)
- 6 To beef _____ something is to complain about it. (5)
- 7 The imperative, chop _____, is an informal way of saying move faster, or get a move on. (4)
- 9 Someone who is born with a _____ spoon in their mouth has been born into a wealthy and privileged family and never has to worry about money or earning a living. (6)

- 12 Something which is done quickly and easily is done in two _____ of a lamb's tail. (6)
- 14 If you can't _____ something, you're not able to tolerate it, stand it, or abide it. (7)
- 15 If you are going to be severely punished for a small crime, you might as well get the same punishment for a big crime, and we say that you might as well be _____ for a sheep as a lamb. (4)

Down

- 2 Somebody who knows their _____ is very knowledgeable and skilled in what they are doing. (6)
- 3 To threaten to punch someone in the mouth with your fist is to threaten them with a _____ sandwich. (7)

- 5 When you take _____, you take whatever you are fortunate enough to be given. (7)
- 6 To persuade somebody to do something by using both punishment and threats is to use the carrot and stick _____. (8)
- 8 If you _____ your own bacon, you're doing everything you can to protect yourself while giving no consideration to others. (4)
- 10 Something which fails to influence or convince someone _____ no ice. (4)
- 11 A _____ egg is a person who is dependable, honest, trustworthy, and generally agreeable. (4)
- 12 To _____ hungry is to maintain your enthusiasm for, and determination to do even better at, something than you have succeeded at in the past, no matter how successful you may have been. (4)
- 13 Something someone does that results in an unexpected and embarrassing situation is known as a banana _____. (4)